

Goodnight Moon

Week of January 7-11, 2013

This week, during our whole-class language enrichment activity, your child read Goodnight Moon by Margaret Wise Brown. During this rhyme-based story, house items were told "Goodnight".

We also targeted the following skills:

Phonological Awareness: identifying rhyming words, counting syllables
Speech sounds: /g, k, s, final consonants/
Morphology/word parts: plural "-s"

Target Words

/g,k/: goodnight, comb, cow, kittens, rug, log

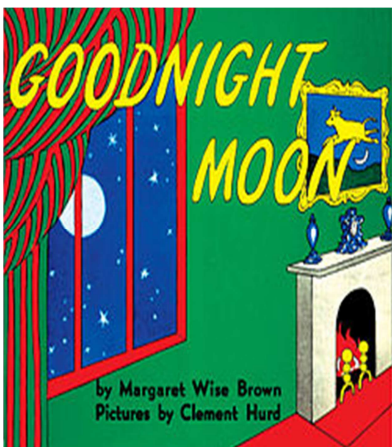

/s/: socks, house, mouse, stars

Final Consonants: moon, room, light, bears, night, yarn

Happy New Year, and welcome back to school! -Mrs. Moon, Speech-Language Pathologist
