

Mrs. Moon's Speech & Language Classroom

Week of Oct 8-12, 2012

This week, your child learned about the Old Lady Who Swallowed a Fly. Attached are the pictures to go along with the story, as well as an "old lady". Your child may color and cut out the pictures (cut out the "old lady's" belly, cover the open section with wax paper, glue the old lady to another piece of paper, and place the items "down the hatch"). Have your child tell you the story using his/her words.

Goals addressed during this activity:

- rhyming words (fly/die, cow/how, dog/hog) and vocabulary, as well as narrative skill development.
- Understanding the wh-words "who" and "why"
- Listening comprehension
- Sequencing and narrative developing
- Listening and participating
- Vocabulary development—animals
- Pronouns (I, she)
